Review of "White Man's Burden" by Rudyard Kipling

Take up the White Man's burden--
Send forth the best ye breed--
Go bind your sons to exile
To serve your captives' need;
To wait in heavy harness,
On fluttered folk and wild--
Your new-caught, sullen peoples,
Half-devil and half-child.

Questions

1. What is the subject of the poem?
2. What is the speaker's attitude towards the subject?
3. Who are the "sullen peoples" and how are they characterized?
4. What are some of the "duties" the speaker says must be done?
5. What is the "White Man's Burden"?

Case Study Group work

In your small groups use the case study readings and complete the notes graphic organizers. Each person in your group is responsible for one section. You will then share out your answers so that all members of your group have completed notes.

Remember to do a good job on your section as your peers will be relying on you for the notes.

* This information will be very important for your in class DBQ essay test next class!!!
